Stage 4 lockdown has seen me lose my prime position in the working from home (wfh) status. With a son in year 7, a full-time wfh daughter and a shift working emergency services husband, our return to school at the beginning of term resulted in my comfortable office space quickly snapped up. Now, I set up a workstation wherever I can! My assistant is not altogether helpful, but he is very loyal and trustworthy. As a family, we make sure that we pack away our offices at the end of the day and come together across the dinner table.

Take care and stay happy :-) Jodie - Admin
